ATO Agent Linking for Clients

Help For Clients · https://seamlss.com.au/help/ato-agent-linking-for-clients/

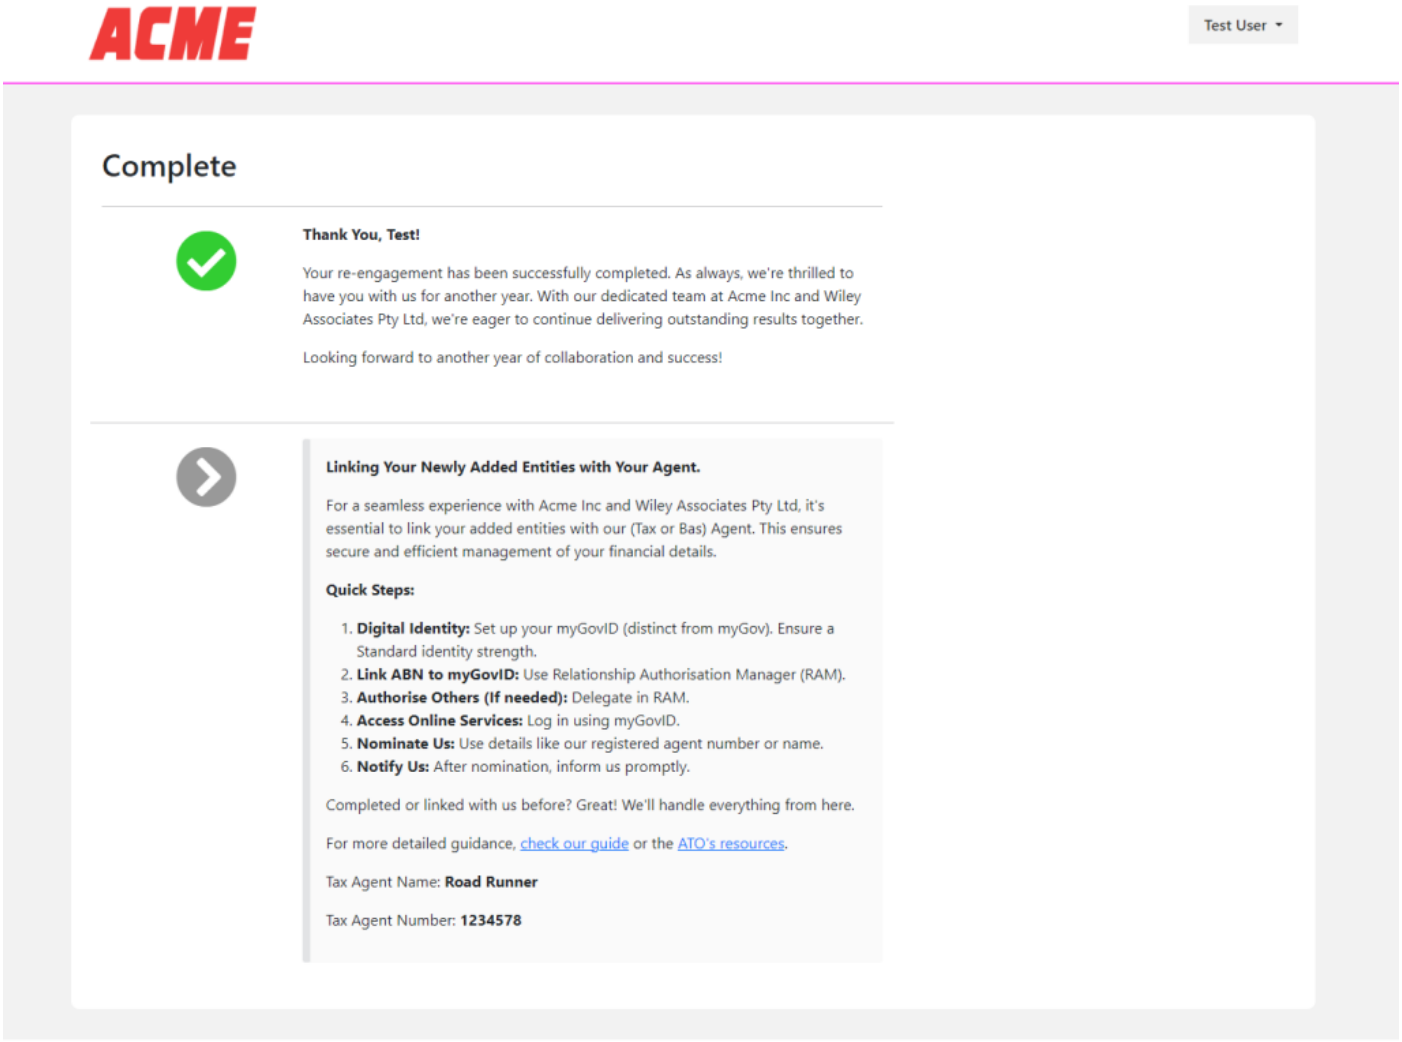

As of the 13th November 2023, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) has introduced new requirements for the way entities allow accountants and bookkeepers to act on their behalf.

The new Agent-Client Linking rule aims to make the relationship between tax agents and their clients clearer. For business owners and trusts, this means accessing the Relationship Authorisation Manager (RAM) to link your entity to your Tax/Business Activity Statement (BAS) Agent.

Seamlss has created a step-by-step guide to help you through this process.

If you added an entity during the onboarding process with your agent, you will be asked to link your enitites to the agent's firm. Your agent may also send a request for you to complete this process at any other time.

Why Agent Linking?

New ATO Requirement:

The Australian Taxation Office now requires you to link us as your Tax or BAS agent. This is a one-time step that ensures we can represent you officially and take care of your tax matters.
